Make It Easy is a collection of delicious, easy recipes that can be prepared in advance, making cooking for friends and family a stress-free and fun experience.

Ranging from simple starters and quick suppers to weekend lunches and more elaborate meals, all the dishes are contemporary, fresh and aim to keep ingredients to a minimum.

Elegant but surprisingly simple dishes include: Twice-Baked Roquefort Souffles; Chilled Cucumber, Prawn and Mint Soup; Parma Ham, Mozzarella and Rocket Roulades with Basil Vinaigrette; Quick Creamy Smoked Haddock, Saffron and Chive Risotto; Braised Steak with Mustard and Capers; Slow-Fried Lemon and Oregano Potatoes; Spiced Orange Panna Cotta; and Sticky Rhubarb Cake. This book is packed with inspirational recipes all of which are explained in a lively and informative way.

Jane Lovett offers new and experienced cooks alike a host of supremely useful tips on how to get ahead, making preparing meals for the family or a dinner party a breeze. Many recipes in this book can be prepared not just hours, but days in advance, giving the host time to relax and enjoy the meal and not spend the whole occasion in the kitchen.

Jane Lovett is an experienced cook who runs very popular cookery demonstrations from her home and around the country. She regularly contributes to regional newspapers and magazines. She trained at the Cordon Bleu in London, has taught at Leith's School of Food & Wine, worked as a home economist and run her own successful catering business.
